

The Green Boxes Under My News are Very Important!

We would like to take this opportunity to remind families how important it is to access Compass on a daily basis and to always check what the “Green Boxes” directly under “My News” are asking you to do.

What is ‘Event Consent/Payment Required’?

We now place all Excursions and Incursions on Compass under this payment type. When an excursion is first posted you will receive an email advising you that it is available to view and pay on Compass.

What is ‘Course Confirmation/School Payments’?

Payments for activities that are not compulsory appear under this payment type ie ICAS (which is placed on everyone’s newsfeed so they can make the choice to participate or not) Robotics and Mandarin (which will only appear once you have expressed an interest to participate).

The Compass system also allows the school to place activities and agreements that require permission, but no payment under ‘Course Confirmation’. In previous years we have sent home letters requesting parents to give permission for :-
